

About Skips

To play a SKIP...

On the staff, a SKIP is from a LINE to the next LINE.

skip up

skip down

Hey, Hey, Look at Me!

Traditional

Brightly

Play this song on more white keys! Begin with R.H. thumb on D, E, F, G, A, B, and C. Think skips!

Teacher Duet: (Student plays 1 octave higher)

Reading Check:

Notice the R.H. begins with the thumb and skips UP.

The L.H. also begins with the thumb and skips DOWN.

Allegro

(Allegro is the Italian word for fast and lively.)

Mauro Giuliani
(1781–1829, Italy)
adapted

Fast and lively

DISCOVERY

Circle at least 8 skips in this piece. Hint: Don't forget to look over the bar lines!

Teacher Duet: (Student plays 1 octave higher)